Pursuant to the Court's Order of November 17, 2005, the parties are to file further briefing concerning remedy and compliance issues. Plaintiffs will file their opening brief on December 16, 2005. Defendant's response is due on January 20, 2006, with Plaintiffs' reply due on February 3, 2006. Counsel for Defendant has requested Plaintiff to agree to a short extension of the date for Defendant's response because of another brief due on January 13th as well as the need to attend negotiations in another matter involving many parties set for January 20th. Plaintiffs are amenable to an extension of the schedule.

The hearing is set for February 17, 2006. The proposed extension will affect the hearing date since the final reply would be filed less than fourteen (14) days before the hearing. To ensure the Court has adequate time to review the filings, the hearing date would also have to be extended. Given the Court's schedule, the next available hearing date is March 3, 2006. The Plaintiffs are willing to agree to reschedule the hearing to March 3, 2006, but do not want the hearing postponed further. Therefore, Plaintiffs and Defendant do hereby stipulate and request that:

1. The date by which Defendant may file its Response on Further Remedy Briefing be extended to and including January 27, 2006.

2. The date by which Plaintiffs may file their Reply be extended to on or before February 17, 2006.

3. The hearing set for February 17, 2006 be vacated and rescheduled for ~~March 3, 2006.~~ March 10, 2006.

Respectfully Submitted,
